

VOICES OF THE FAITHFUL
On the Acquittal of Bishop Franco Mulakkal, the Accused in the Nun Rape Case

February 06, 2022

We, the undersigned Catholics are deeply concerned and shocked at the judgement of the Additional Sessions Court, Kottayam, Kerala, which acquitted the accused in the alleged rape case and cast aspersions on the character of the Sister survivor.

The judgement overlooks the fact that the abuser was within a fiduciary relationship of power and authority over the victim as the patron of her congregation. It does not take into account her multiple vulnerabilities as a religious nun. Minor discrepancies in her statement are relied upon to project the survivor as a manipulator and a power hungry person who has filed a false complaint only to tarnish the image of the Bishop at the instigation of his rivals.

An adverse inference of discrepancy and inconsistency was drawn from the fact that the Sister did not use the same terminology when describing her experiences of sexual assault to different people. It has ignored the cultural inhibitions of the nun, and the deep mental and emotional trauma of rape survivors, which incapacitates them, making it difficult for them to re-live and verbalise their experiences of sexual assault in legally accepted language.

We would like to emphasise that while this judgement has acquitted the accused bishop, this should not deter the ecclesiastical courts from conducting an enquiry (Can.1717§1) and giving the victim the right to participate in the proceedings and claim compensation for damages as required by Can. 1729 §1.

We are appalled at the callous attitude of Church leaders in India and the Vatican, who failed to respond sensitively and constructively to this grave issue of sexual assault. The survivor nun made every effort to resolve the issue within internal Church structures (letters dated 11 July 2017 to Cardinal Alencherry, Kerala; 28 January 2018 to the Nuncio; 14 May 2018 to the Pope and three Dicasteries of the Vatican) and it was only when her complaint was ignored that she approached the police. Had the Church authorities responded to her desperate pleas, the issue could have been resolved internally. Instead, they negated her existence as a daughter of the Church by denying her the right to seek justice within the ecclesiastical family.

In his address to his fellow bishops on 22 February 2019 during the Vatican Summit on the abuse crisis, Oswald Cardinal Gracias enumerates the following reasons for "a failed or inadequate institutional response to sexual abuse":

VOICES OF THE FAITHFUL

On the Acquittal of Bishop Franco Mulakkal, the Accused in the Nun Rape Case

- a. "Failure to listen to victims to take their claims seriously";
- b. "Not extending care and support to victims and their families";
- c. "Failing to withdraw abusers from situations that would enable them to abuse other victims";
- d. "Giving priority to protecting institutional concerns over and above the care of victims."

Judging by these, the Church has failed miserably in its response to the survivor nun afflicted by the crime of sexual assault.

We therefore strongly demand that:

1. The concerned Church leaders visit the traumatised nun and her companions and give them an opportunity to tell their truth;
2. Immediate action is taken to ensure that justice is done and their wellbeing is assured;
3. The survivor and the sisters supporting her, who constitute her 'community', be given protection and be permitted to continue to reside and exercise their mission in the convent at St. Francis Mission Home;
4. The Church provide these sisters with the psychological, spiritual and financial support that they require (Art.5 MotuProprioVosEstis Lux Mundi).

In order to uphold the integrity and credibility of the Catholic Church we insist that:

1. Franco Mulakkal is not given any administrative responsibilities and spiritual leadership as a Bishop in any diocese till the case is completed(Cf. Can.1395§2).
2. As bishop of Jalandhar and patron of the MJ congregation, he should be moved out of Jalandhar so that he cannot use his powerful influence to intimidate the sister survivor and her companions.

To prevent the recurrence of sexual harassment, abuse and assault it is imperative that the Church puts the necessary structures in place. We therefore demand that:

VOICES OF THE FAITHFUL

On the Acquittal of Bishop Franco Mulakkal, the Accused in the Nun Rape Case

1. There must be absolute transparency and accountability in the manner in which sex abuse cases are handled in the Church;
2. Every Church run institution/parish with ten or more employees must have an Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) as mandated by the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act, 2013, and the CBCI Norms to Deal with Sexual Harassment at Workplace, 2017;
3. The Guidelines for dealing with cases of clergy sexual abuse issued by the Vatican, and the names of the members of the Committees instituted to implement them, must be made public so that the faithful are aware where to take a complaint, the procedures that will be followed, and the kind of action that will be taken. Women with the necessary experience and expertise must be involved in the process of receiving complaints, investigations, decision-making, and follow-up action.
4. Canon law and the theology of priesthood must be revised to cleanse it of elements that breed clericalism which is an enabler of clerical sexual abuse.

Pope Francis, on dedicating his prayer intention for the month of February, 2022 to religious and consecrated women, stated openly: “I invite them to fight when, in some cases, they are treated unfairly, even within the Church.”

We write this statement sharing this concern of Pope Francis, to fight unfair treatment and seek justice for this daughter of the Church who has been a "witness of consecration" for over two decades. We trust that this will be received by the ecclesiastical leaders in a spirit of listening, as we walk the Synodal path together, to build God's "Kin-dom" here on earth.
