Blog
Religious Life

The opening session of the Second Vatican Council in St. Peter's Basilica at the Vatican Oct. 11, 1962 (CNS/Catholic Press Photo/Giancarlo Giuliani)

by A Nun's Life Ministry

View Author Profile

Join the Conversation

August 18, 2023

Share on BlueskyShare on FacebookShare on TwitterEmail to a friendPrint

Sr. Patricia Crowley, a member of the Benedictine Sisters of Chicago, entered St. Scholastica Monastery before the 1962-65 Second Vatican Council — and was part of the community when changes resulting from the council were implemented. In this clip from the "In Good Faith" podcast, she shares how her community's life and liturgy evolved and expanded.

Click here to listen to the full "In Good Faith" podcast where this clip is from.

GSR shares clips from our friends at A Nun's Life Ministry. Check out full episodes of all their podcasts (Ask Sister, In Good Faith, Random Nun Clips and more, like the archived Motherhouse Road Trips) on their website, ANunsLife.org.

Advertisement