Welcome to our eighth year of The Life, featuring a panel of 20 sisters who will reflect on issues that impact the lives of Catholic women religious around the globe.

We chose a panel from more than 65 applicants from around the world who reflect a diversity of ages, nationalities, religious congregations, ministries and charisms. They'll take turns writing responses to a prompt or a question about spirituality, religious life and other topics.

Our panelists this year have ties to or have worked in Ireland, Nigeria, Australia, Kenya, India, Tanzania, Singapore, Ecuador, Philippines, Botswana and the United States.

The panelists serve in various roles across educational, pastoral, administrative and community-focused ministries. We will hear from a contemplative nun, a university lecturer, a resource mobilization expert, a social activist and a counselor, among others.

A panel as diverse as this will surely enrich our understanding of "the life" God has called them to.

Welcome to our eighth year!

Angela Cameron is a contemplative nun of the Order of the Most Holy Redeemer (Redemptoristines), based in Dublin. Originally from Scotland, she holds a master's degree in theology with a focus on spirituality. As a Redemptoristine, her charism is to embody the living memorial of God's redemptive work through Christ. She is dedicated to a life of union with Christ, expressing her vocation through love, service and deep contemplative prayer. Engaging in silent prayer and praise, she lives out the Redemptoristines' mission of reflecting Christ's paschal mystery in everyday life.
